

Assignment for Node.js Development:

Create a REST API for a Store. That should have following features.

Required tasks:

1. jwt based authentication
2. Two roles -> user and admin
 - If no role is given default should be user
3. An admin can add, update and delete products and their prices
4. A user can see all products list with their prices and name
5. A user can get product detail by id also

Optional task:

A user can't add, update and delete products and their prices